Construction Cost Escalation

Speaker

Lance Wilhelm

Senior Vice President, Hawaii Area Manager, Kiewit Building Group

Lance Wilhelm will discuss forecasts of construction costs, drivers of cost escalation and cost issues specific to Hawaii, such as workforce shortages.

An 18-year veteran of the Hawaii construction industry, Lance Wilhelm was named Kiewit Building Group's senior vice president and Hawaii area manager in 2005. Kiewit Building Group is a leading national general contractor and construction manager focusing on hospitality, retail, health care, military, education, and public works projects.

Kiewit

Building Group Inc.

Wilhelm is responsible for all business operations within Hawaii and plans to increase Kiewit Building Group's presence in the state's vertical construction industry. Current projects include the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands headquarters in Kapolei, Lahaina Gateway, a retail development, and renovation work at Kaiser Moanalua Medical Center and Kuakini Medical Center. Notable past projects include the Pacific Aviation Museum at Pearl Harbor, Maui Marketplace, Island Pacific Academy, the Interisland Terminal at the Honolulu International Airport, renovations at the Hale Koa and Kahala Mandarin hotels, and the C-17 Beddown North Sector (a pilot-training facility at Hickam Air Force Base), which garnered a 2006 Build Hawaii Award.
